

Dr. Frank “Scott” Douglas

Current Position

Associate Professor of Strategy (2004 – present)
Strategy & Policy Department
United States Naval War College, Newport, Rhode Island

Education

Columbia University, New York City, New York
Ph.D. in Political Science, May 2005
Dissertation: “Hitting Home: Coercive Theory, Air Power, and Authoritarian Targets”

M.Phil. in Political Science, February 2001
Harriman Institute Certificate for Area Studies Specialization, May 2001
East/Central Europe & the Balkans

School of Advanced International Studies, Johns Hopkins University, Washington, DC
M.A. in International Relations, May 1997
Concentration: Strategic Studies, Minor: Economics

School of Foreign Service, Georgetown University, Washington, DC
BSFS cum laude in International Affairs, May 1993
Concentration: Diplomacy and Security, Minor: Economics

Selected Military & International Experience

Mobilization in support of US and International Mission to Afghanistan
Resolute Support Headquarters, Kabul, Afghanistan, September 2018-July 2019

Civilian Advisor to Regional Command SouthWest (RC(SW)), Operation Enduring Freedom
Helmand, Afghanistan, October 2011-February 2012
Received Navy Civilian Meritorious Service Medal

Mobilization in support of Joint Special Operations Task Force
Baghdad and Ramadi, Iraq, May 2009-April 2010

Commander, United States Navy Reserve
Commanding Officer, CENTCOM intelligence reserve support unit, 2017-present
Commanding Officer, Naval Special Warfare intelligence reserve support unit, 2015-2017

Election Observer, Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe
Bosnia-Herzegovina, May-September 1997

Selected Works:

“Waging the Inchoate War: Defining, Fighting, and Second-Guessing the ‘Long War,’” Journal of Strategic Studies, June 2007 (vol. 30, no. 3).

“The Road to Dayton: Diplomatic & Military Interaction in Bosnia,” co-authored with Thomas Keaney, in Volker Franke, ed., Terrorism and Peacekeeping: New Security Challenges (Westport: Praeger, 2005)

“In the Eyes of Your Enemy,” with Heidi Lane, a Compendium of primary source documents used as course reader for the Naval War College “War with Al Qaeda” module.

Selected Lectures By Case Study:

“Iraq and the Global War on Terror: Peripheral operations and Main Theaters”

“Retrospect & Prospect in the Global War on Terror”

“A Strategic Historic of the Global War on Terror”

“Waging Unthinkable War: Nuclear Weapons, Strategy and Arms Control”

“Coercion, Deterrence & Compellence: A Primer”

“Problems of Intelligence and Assessment: Iraq and WMD”

“The United States and the Gulf 1979-2003: The Pursuit of ‘Security and Stability’”

“War Termination, Interaction and Coercive War: Iraq 1990-1998”

“Civil-Military Relations & Vietnam”

“Victory Through Air Power?” (World War II)

“Rise of Air Power” (Interwar Period)

“A Strategic History of the American Revolution”

“Masters of War: Clausewitz and Sun Tzu”