

Richard J. Norton

EDUCATION

- 1976 Tulane University
BA/ History
- 1991 The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy
MA/ Security Studies
- 1996 The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy
MALD/ Security Studies
- 2003 The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy
PhD/ National Security Decision Making

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- 1999 – Present Naval War College, Newport, RI
Professor of National Security Affairs, including multi-year assignments as Course Director for Policy Making and Process, National Security Decision Making Department, and Course Director for Leadership Concepts, National Security Affairs Department (formerly National Security Decision Making Department)
- 2015 – Present Salve Regina University, Newport, RI
Adjunct Professor of Political Science. (With permission of the Naval War College). Taught undergraduate course Introduction to International Relations and Contemporary African Issues. Taught graduate (online) Course in International Terrorism and Transnational Crime
- 1996 – 1999 Florida International University, Miami, FL
*Adjunct Professor of Political Science
Lecturer, Senior Studies Institute*
- 1993 – 1996 Naval War College Newport, RI
Naval Officer and Military Professor of National Security Affairs, National Security Decision Making Department
- 1976 - 1993 United States Navy,

Commissioned Officer with extensive experience in Major Staff (policy) and Cruiser/Destroyer Fleet Assignments,

AWARDS RECEIVED

1976 – 1996 Various personal and organizational awards to include the Meritorious Service Medal (with gold stars for subsequent awards.), Navy Commendation Medal, Navy Expeditionary (with star in lieu of second award) and others.

1998 ISS (South) Convention Top Paper

2004 Concept of Feral Cities selected as among notable new ideas by The New York Times

2005 United States Naval War College Student selected Teacher of the Year

2018 – United States Naval War College Peer selected Teacher of the Year

PUBLICATIONS

2019 Contributing chapter (Lejuene) to “Studies in Decision –Making (in p rogress)”

2019 “Should a Carrier get Hit.” Submitted War on the Rocks

2018 “What’s in a name Seapower Magazine, CO-author

2017 (Blue Hulls) International Peace-Keeping Journal

2015 (Republished) “Through a Mirror Darkly” The Face of Future War. 1871 – 2005 – War College Series ISBN10: 1296474429

2013 “Interview: Feral Cities” Inaugural Edition of Journal of Media and Information Policy.

2012 “Through a Mirror Darkly: The Face of Future War, 1871-2005”

BiblioGov,(November, 2012)

2010 “Feral Cities: Problems Today, Battlefields Tomorrow?” Marine Corps University Journal Vol 1, No.1

2000 -present More than five dozen book reviews in various journals including The Naval War College Review, Parameters and other journals (Both print and on-line.)

2003 “The Intervention in the Democratic Republic of Congo,” Civil Wars, vol 6, no 4, co-author.

2003 “Feral Cities,” Naval War College Review, Autumn

2002 “Refugees and Security in the Great Lakes Region of Africa,” Civil Wars, vol5, no.1, co-author.

2000 – 2017 More than a dozen Op-ed piece published both nationally and globally.

1998 “Humanitarian Early Warning Systems,” Global Governance, 4, July – September, co-author.

1997 “The Paradox of Early Warning,” The Journal of Humanitarian Assistance, July, co-author.

1997 “Spotting Trouble: Identifying Faltering and Failing States”, co-author Naval War College Review, Spring

1994 – 2008 Contributing chapter author, 2nd – 12th editions, National Security: Case Studies in Policy Making and Process, Naval War College Press, Newport, RI

686 Cushing Road Newport, RI 02840
(401) 841-6442, E-mail: Nortonr@usnwc.edu

1994 “National Security: U.S. Contingency Operations”, Vol II, 1st edition. ed. Naval War College Press, Newport, RI

1994 “National Security: Case Studies in Policy Making and Implementation, Vol 1 & Vol 3, 1st edition, ed. Naval War College Press, Newport, RI

ELECTIVE COURSES TAUGHT

Civil War 1993 – 1996

International Relations Theory 1995

Failing States 1996

The Face of Future War 2000 – 2005

Colonial Wars /Colonial Wars in Africa 2000 – 2005, 2010 – Present

Wars of African Independence 2006 - Present

ADDITIONAL PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES – SEMINARS AND PAPERS

2014 Office of the Secretary of Defense History Speaker Series, “General John Archer Lejeune: The Transformation of the Marine Corps, 1920 – 1929, Pentago

2000 – Present Numerous Presentations to Professional Organizations (ISS, NEPSA, 7th IREP and so on), Civil Organizations (Navy League, Naval War College Foundation, and so on) NGOs/Corporations (“The Seminar,” Medicins Sans Frontiers, National Geographic, and so on). Guest Lecture at Academic Institutions (United States Military Academy, Bryant University, Hart College Oxford, UK and so on.)

PRESENTATIONS, PANELS AND OTHER SERVICE RELATED ACTIVITES

2000- Present Served as discussant, moderator or contributor to numerous panels including, but not limited to “The Current Strategy Forum,” “Women in Peace and Security,” “Ethics,” “Inside the Practitioner’s Studio” “[Breaking the Mold,” and so on.

OVERSEAS TRAVEL RELATED TO PROFESSIONAL EXPERTSIE

2000 – Present

2016 – Created and presented PhD. Lectures at CESNAF HQ, Mexico, City, Mexico.

2016 – Presented a series of lectures to Senior Military Officers, Asuncion, Paraguay.

2000-2019 Presented lectures and classes to senior military and civilian officials in the following countries at least once and often several times: Argentina, Brazil, Botswana, Ethiopia, Paraguay, Jamaica, Kenya, Tanzania and Uganda.

SPECIALIZATIONS

Decision Making

Policy Analysis

Leadership Concepts

Future Urban Issues including combat

Colonial Warfare 1847 – 1936

African Security Issues and Conflicts

SECURITY CLEARANCE

Top Secret

LANGUAGE

French