KNOWLEDGE.

ACHIEVEMENT.

PRESTIGE.

My LADS and LADIES,

Join the HATTENDORF HISTORICAL CENTER and pursue ACADEMIC TREASURE with leading historians. All that is required is your enthusiasm. We will sail on the next tide for our journey of DISCOVERY and ARCHIVAL ADVENTURES. Then we will dock at GRADUATION with ESSENTIAL ACADEMIC CREDENTIALS filling our pockets.

Introducing the

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN MARITIME HISTORY AT THE HATTENDORF HISTORICAL CENTER AT THE U.S. NAVAL WAR COLLEGE

The HHC is a new and uncommonly fine department. Built on purpose. And ready for an EXPEDITION, as soon as some more good HANDS are on board.

Study with renowned historians, LUCKY IN PRIZES

LEGENDARY Professor Emeritus JOHN B. HATTENDORF (who did not die of scurvy as reported) dispenses wisdom daily. Ask Professors CRAIG SYMONDS and GEOFFREY TILL to discuss one of their FORTY-SEVEN INCREDIBLE BOOKS, or come work with HOT SHOTS from OXFORD (who have DPhils rather than mundane PhDs), Professors J. ROSS DANCY and EVAN WILSON.

None need apply but SAILORS, or STOUT MINDS, able to rouse about the archives and read a hundred folders of original documents without stopping.

PLAN OF ACTION

STEP ONE: Come to the HHC Rendezvous to interview for a coveted berth on the USS GCMH. Set an appointment by EMAILING gcmh@usnwc.edu.

STEP TWO: Enroll in THREE electives in the Maritime History Concentration. One of them must be either WAR AT SEA IN THE AGE OF SAIL in the Fall or WAR AT SEA IN THE AGE OF STEAM in the Winter.

THROUGHOUT THE YEAR: Write a Professional Paper or Article of publishable quality of approximately 10,000 words (35 pgs) based on Archival Research on a topic of Maritime History. You will work in consultation with a Professor from the Hattendorf Historical Center.
